DANIELSON

New Organ at Methodist Church Demonstrated—Many at Armory Dance—Death of Miss Rebecca Walker—Heavy Town Vote Expected—Bohemian Club to Revolve Returns By Special Wire.

William Martin, baseball pitcher, re-membered local friends with souvenir cards, mailed at Jacksonville, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bassett have taken charge as superintendent and matron of the Killbuck town farm.

Selections on New Organ. Several special numbers were played by Mrs. Sidney Perry, organist, to display the tone of the new organ, at the opening of the Sunday evening service at the Methodist church.

Oyster Supper. The oyster supper served at the Congregational church here by the ladies of the church at South Killingly netted considerable revenue.

No settlement having been reached in the case of J. Arthur Woodcock, the shipments to Boston dropped to a new low level Saturday morning, when only 22 jugs were despatched.

Plaidfield became a no-license town with the closing of the saloons to-night for tomorrow is election day and all saloons in the state will be closed.

Poor Hunting Season. The poorest hunting season in years is reported by the sportsmen who have been out after quail, partridge, woodcock and pheasants.

Many non-residents who retain their voting rights will return to the town tomorrow to participate in the general election.

Dance at Armory. There were many visitors in town Saturday evening for the popular dancing social at the state armory, which has one of the best floors of any hall in the eastern section of the state.

Tons of paper of varieties heretofore consigned to burning are being collected by different interests in town and sold to advantage.

Addition to Power Plant. A brick addition to the local plant of the People's Light and Power Co. is practically completed.

Summoning Witnesses. Deputy Sheriff Charles E. Ayer summoned witnesses here Saturday for the case of J. Arthur Woodcock vs. the N. Y. N. H. and H. R. R. company, who are in the superior court at Putnam next Wednesday.

The case results from the destruction of an automobile truck in the accident at the Franklin Street crossing, August 1, 1914.

A number of Danielson parties motored to New London Saturday and Sunday with the hope of getting a view of the German submersible Deutschland.

FUNERAL.

Albert Weibel.

Funeral services for Albert Weibel, one month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Weibel, were held here Saturday afternoon by Rev. Michael Thomas, burial was in Westfield cemetery. L. P. Kennedy was the funeral director.

The child was a twin brother of the Weibel child that died a week ago.

Granting Licenses Nov. 9. Thursday, November 9, is set as the date for the coming here of the county commissioners for the purpose of granting licenses. So far as has been learned, no remonstrances have been presented to the granting of any of the applicants. The places at present doing business will continue until new licenses are issued.

OBITUARY.

Miss Rebecca Walker.

Miss Rebecca Walker, 58, died Saturday morning at 4 o'clock, in Brooklyn, where she had been a resident since June. Miss Walker was an aunt of J. P. Barrett, of Prospect street, and had lived with him. Her early life was spent in Eastford and she was the last of the members of her family.

HEAVY TOWN VOTE
LOOKED FOR TOMORROW
Total Ballots Expected to Run Up to 1,400 Possibly.

A heavy vote is looked for in the coming election tomorrow. It is estimated that 1,200 men will vote in the three districts and some prophets figure that the total may reach 1,400, which would be unusually high. Preparations are complete for getting out the vote and every man available will be given an opportunity of easily getting to the polls.

In Killingly there is no special contest on. The battle of ballots will be fought out in the straight party lines, each side endeavoring to make a ticket showing and not a big drive for a special candidate or group of candidates.

The re-election of Judge Sabin S. Russell is already conceded. Incidentally it is expected that Judge Russell, in the regular order, from a clerk of the senate to the post mentioned.

Special Wire For Bohemian Club. The executive committee of the Bohemian club announced Saturday afternoon that arrangements had been completed for receiving election returns Tuesday night. A special telegraph wire will be run and an operator will go on duty early in the evening. The service will be continued until the outcome of the election throughout the country is indicated.

In addition to its wire service the club has arranged to have a screen hung on the north side of the Exchange building, opposite the club. On this screen returns received over the special telegraph will be flashed for the benefit of the public. Entertainment for the crowds in the way of pictures will be provided and it is probable that a special cartoon service may be put on, as was done four years ago, when leading local politicians and workers were caricatured much to the amusement of all concerned.

Returns from surrounding towns may be expected early, some soon after 7 o'clock, but the wire service will not become real active until about 9 o'clock.

Refreshments are to be served in the club rooms and there will be a smoker.

WILL C. BAILEY FATALLY INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT.
Machine Owned by William B. Wheatley Skidded on West Pavement in Providence.

Will C. Bailey, 27, died Sunday morning at 10 o'clock of a fracture of the skull at the Rhode Island hospital in Providence. Bailey was injured early Sunday morning in an automobile accident on Elmwood avenue, Providence. He was riding at the time in the car of William B. Wheatley. It is said that the car skidded on the wet

PUTNAM

Albert Williams Taken to Norwich State Hospital—Congregational Society May Decide for Free Pews—Commissioners Grant Nineteen Liquor and Five Drug Licenses—Abington Man Paid $50 to Settle Quarantine Claim.

Albert Williams, who was employed at the White place and was taken into custody and held here that his soundness of mind might be investigated, was taken Saturday to the state hospital at Norwich.

County Commissioners E. H. Cortis, John A. Dady and Urege Lafrance were in Killingly granting licenses Saturday. They also were in Plainfield to grant druggists' licenses, there being six applicants.

Woodstock voters have a special town meeting this afternoon to discuss matters pertaining to methods of keeping the town accounts and rendering annual reports.

Mrs. Frank Barber was leader at the consecration meeting of the Congregational church Sunday evening.

Delegates to State Convention. Rev. R. D. Sargent, C. D. Sturges, C. E. Child and Misses Hattie Inman and Josephine Gifford attended the state Sunday school convention in Hartford, the representatives of the Second Congregational church.

Malcolm M. Willey of Clark college, Worcester, was at his home here over Sunday.

Saturday afternoon there was a meeting of the recently appointed distributors of the George M. Morse estate.

Piano Auctioned for $58. To satisfy a claim, a piano that was the property of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor, formerly resident here, was sold at auction at Union square Saturday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff George P. Hooke. The instrument went to Guy Zito for $58.

May Favor Free Pews. The Ecclesiastical society of the Congregational church is to hold a meeting Wednesday evening to consider the matter of adopting the system of free pews and to consider the proposition of changing the beginning of the fiscal year from April 1 to Jan. 1.

Skilled Laborers in Demand. Indications are that there will be an unprecedented demand for skilled laborers in construction lines throughout the winter season during which periods of outdoor work are possible. Much work is being done on contracts now under way that there may be as little delay as possible on account of cold weather.

GRANTED 24 LICENSES. County Commissioners Grant Applications from Nineteen Saloons and Five Drug Stores.

County Commissioners John A. Dady, E. H. Cortis and Urege Lafrance met in the office of the clerk of the superior court here Saturday and granted nineteen applications for liquor licenses and five druggists' licenses. The commissioners received 314.75 for the licenses issued, the clerk of the court received 12.50 for the fee of $750 each. Paid $50 Claim for Quarantined Property.

At Pomfret Saturday there was a conference of representatives of the county, Henry Lafor of Abington and selectmen of the town relative to a claim against the town of Pomfret filed by Mr. Lafor, this claim for reimbursement for the inconvenience to which he was put, and for other related conversations, when his house was quarantined a few weeks ago, and kept so for a period of three weeks. During this period there was a person ill with infantile paralysis here for a period of time and fellow workers of the sick man were kept in quarantine during the entire period. His claim was adjusted by the officials agreeing to pay Mr. Lafor $250.

Close Vote for Representatives. One of the special features in tomorrow's election, as far as Putnam is concerned, is a town, will be the contest for the election of Putnam's representatives. The republican candidates are Ernest B. Kent and A. A. Brodeur. By nominating only one candidate—Mayor J. J. McGarry—the republicans have made the contest a three-cornered one and thereby injected new elements of interest and possibilities.

The vote on representatives will therefore attract more than passing attention from both the republican and democratic factions while the contest is directing the management and strategy of Tuesday's proceedings.

Superior Court Session Wednesday. After a month of sessions in Williamstown, the superior court will be resumed here Wednesday, as the election on Tuesday will cause a delay of a day in opening. Attorneys in this and surrounding counties have a number of cases ready to be tried during November.

INSTRUCTING VOTERS. Plain Directions for Making Ballots Count Tomorrow.

Leaders of both political parties have been spending considerable time during the closing hours of the campaign in endeavoring to drive home essential facts relative to the proper use of the big ballots that will confront the voters when they enter the voting booths tomorrow.

Great emphasis is laid on these instructions: If you wish to vote a straight party ticket, mark an X in the circle at the head of that party's column, and mark no more.

If you wish to vote a split ticket, pavement and that the steering gear broke as the big machine crashed against the tree. Bailey was hurled out of the car, and as he fell his head struck against the curb. He was hurled to the Rhode Island hospital, but never regained consciousness. Mr. Wheatley was also injured but not seriously. He has a cut on the face that required ten stitches to close. It was said at the hospital Sunday night that he will be able to return to his home here on Wednesday.

The car was wrecked. The body of Bailey was brought here Sunday afternoon.

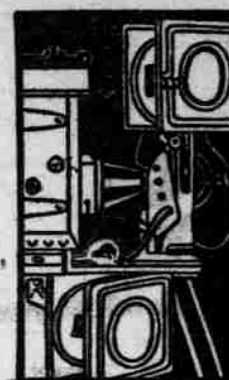

The young man was the son of Mrs. Hattie Bailey of School street and he has been employed here by the South-eastern Telephone company.

Besides his mother, he leaves two brothers, Frank of Hartford and Ray, who is in the Canadian northwest, and two sisters, Miss May, who is a student at Boston university, and Helen, resident in Winthrop, Mass.

FUNERAL.

Ethel E. Demute.

Funeral services for Ethel E. Demute, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Demute, of Elmville, were conducted Sunday morning at 10 o'clock in the First Baptist church here. Burial was in East Putnam cemetery. Louis E. Kennedy was the funeral director.

If the vote tomorrow were to be cast for the most popular roofing, instead of for the election of national officials, there would be an overwhelming plurality in favor of CERTAIN-TEED Roofing.

This is indicated by the fact that "The General" makes 1/3 of all the asphalt roll roofing made in America. The balance is "scattered" among 39 other manufacturers.

Each year CERTAIN-TEED rolls up a strikingly increasing number of advocates, because this type of roof is coming to be recognized as the most efficient covering for all kinds of buildings, with either flat or pitched roofs.

Certain-teed Roofing

is clean and sanitary, costs less to buy, less to lay, less to maintain and less per year of life. It is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). It actually lasts longer.

The secret of this long life lies in the quality of the roofing felt, and the asphalt saturation. Roofings do not wear out—their life depends upon the length of time they retain the saturation. CERTAIN-TEED is made of the best quality of roofing felt; and is thoroughly saturated with the General's own blend of soft asphalt, which keeps the inner saturation soft and prevents the drying-out process so destructive to the ordinary roofing.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls; also in slate-surfaced shingles. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest sky-scraper to the smallest residence or out-building.

CERTAIN-TEED is sold by responsible dealers all over the world, at reasonable prices. Investigate it before you decide on any type of roof.

MILITARY SPIRIT IN CHINA IS DOMINANT

Threatens the Existence of the Present Government.

Peking, Nov. 5.—Military leaders from the various provinces have just held a conference at Heuchowfu in Kiangsu province, which threatens the existence of the present government.

The conference declared that party politics is displacing all desire for peace and harmony under the present government, and that the national assembly which is now wrangling in Peking has accomplished nothing and is being manipulated by political leaders who would be willing to sell their country if they were able to attain their selfish ends.

It was the chief purpose of the conference to form a military union for the checking of civil wars and the preservation of peace. While the military conference favored the principle of having a national assembly, it went on record as being in favor of a dissolution of the assembly by military force should that body take steps inimical to the welfare of the nation.

The conference also considered the proposed constitution which the national assembly is about to draft, and insisted that the legislators should be guided in framing the constitution by the advice of experienced military men.

Chang Yai-seng, the new minister of justice, was singled out as a member of the cabinet who is wholly unworthy to retain his position and protest against him was sent to the central government. The objection to the minister of justice is based on his alleged connection with the recent opium smuggling case at Shanghai.

Large quantities of Yunnan opium were taken by the strict enforcement of the law, and the public regarded the official action as a whitewashing, and his retention in the cabinet provoked wide criticism even before the military conference took action.

The military leaders also insisted that a competent minister of foreign affairs should be immediately appointed to look after the tangled international questions which China now faces.

Parliament and the military party stand at opposite poles. Tuan Chi-jui, the premier, is primarily a military man and in sympathy with the practical methods of the old-time Chinese. He is a military man, is not strongly in sympathy with the military party. He is a military man, is not strongly in sympathy with the military party.

HOW GOOD THAT MUSTEROLE FEELS!

It Gets to That Sore Spot Like Magic

A-a-h! That delicious relief for those sore muscles, those stiff joints, that lame back.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard and other home simples.

It draws the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster, minus the plaster and minus the blister!

You simply rub Musterole on the spot where the pain is—rub it on briskly—and usually the pain is gone.

No muss, no bother. Just comforting, soothing relief—first a gentle glow, then a delightful sense of coolness. And best of all, no blisters like the old-fashioned mustard plaster used to make.

Use Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

25c and 50c jars; hospital size $2.50.
